OBITUARY

"Grief knits our hearts in closer bonds than happiness ever can, and common suffering is a far stronger link than common joy."

Mr. Henry Doctress Marrow, Jr., son of the late Henry D. Marrow, Sr., and surviving Ivey Hunt Marrow, was born in Granville County, N. C., Jan 8, 1947 and died May 12, 1970 at Duke Medical Center, Durham, N. C.

He attended the public schools of Oxford, N. C., and two years at Kittrell College, Kittrell, N. C. He later entered military service where he distinguished his service in the Air Force, attending sniper-marksmanship school and received a Certificate of Accomplishment in the field of Radio and Television repairing.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Willie Mae Sidney Marrow; two daughters, Tammy and Tasha Marrow, all of the home; his mother, Mrs. Ivey Hunt Marrow of Newark, N. J.; one sister, Miss Deborah Marrow, Newark, N. C.; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Amanda Allen of Oxford; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Nannie Marrow of Oxford; four uncles, Ivory Marrow of Oxford, Ralph Hunt of Durham, Talmadge Hunt of Norfolk, Va., and John H. Hunt of Newark, N. J.; four aunts, Mrs. Mildred Ellebee, Mrs. Joyce Shepard, Mrs. Wilma Taylor, all of Newark, N. J., and Mrs. Polly Slaughter of Oxford; father- and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Sidney of Oxford, and numerous nieces and nephews, relatives and friends.

I see the wrong that round me lies,
I feel the guilt within;
I hear with groan and travail cries,
The world confess its sin.

Yet, in the maddening maze of things,
And tossed by storm and flood
To one fixed trust my spirit clings;
I know that God is good!
